

If you're reading this yes this is a place where I save bunch of video url codes when the Wayback Machine shows them to me after saving a certain website

I haven't checked all of the url codes but I did check some

if you scroll long enough you'll see and Easter eggs (I wrote this so there would be a higher likely chance of you finding it... also it's not one of the url codes it's something else so don't do that and save yourself some time if you were going to attempt it in the first place)

Have a great day (also if you found this in the wayback machine please leave a review so I'll see that you actually read this)
